Choose one category:

- Middle School: 2016-2017 year 5th-8th grader, 1,001-5,000 words
- High School: 2016-2017 year 9th-12th grader, 1,001-5,000 words
- Adult: Ages 18 and up, 1,001-10,000 words

- One entry per writer. No entries will be accepted after 8:00PM on Wednesday, August 31st. Submissions can be a short story or part of a larger story and will be judged based on:
 - Creativity and use of theme
 - Spelling, grammar, and articulation
 - Character and/or story development
- Each submission must be typed and accompanied by this completed cover page. Please do not include any identifying information in the submission itself. Your identity should only be on the cover page. A random number will be assigned to your work to anonymously identify your submission. This means anyone may enter the contest, including JCPL employees and board members. You do not need a Jay County Library account to enter.
- With your submission you agree to allow the Jay County Public Library to share your story (with proper attribution) as it chooses, both in print and online.
