

KIDSHEET

NOVEMBER 2016

Bring your parents to the Bookmobile!

You may get to climb on the bookmobile every two weeks during the school year, but have your parents been aboard? On Tuesday, November 1st the bookmobile will be parked at the library from 2:00 to 4:00 pm ready for anyone who would like to come see what a bus loaded with books looks like.

The bookmobile has been visiting schools around the county since 1948, though the current one was bought in 1999. Students come aboard to choose books for themselves and check out with their library cards. The bookmobile also delivers boxes of books to share in classrooms.

Ask your parents and grandparents if they visited the bookmobile when they were kids. Was it the same one you visit or a different model? Did they come during the school year or in the summer?

Sarah Rariak on a last run for the library's third bookmobile

The library's current bookmobile is the fourth vehicle used.

HALLOWEEN SPECIAL

Wednesday, October 26th
6:30 p.m.

For Kids of All Ages

Come in costume and enjoy some scary stories, fun activities, and treats (maybe some tricks?)!

Sponsored by Friends of JCPL

Play Life-size Candy Land November 19th 2:00-4:00 pm

How sweet is that?!

What if you and the game pieces were just about the same size? What if you walked around the gameboard as big as the floor?

Come play and see the start of gingerbread season at the library.

Candy Land is only from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, but we're playing regular board games all afternoon.

Bring some friends or family and have some fun.
