Kindergarten Prep School (KiPS) will be held again this summer at the Jay County Public Library!

What is KiPS? – KiPS is a “jumpstart” into kindergarten program sponsored by the Jay County Public Library and Jay Schools. This program will help boost your child’s kindergarten readiness as they start school in the fall. The program will be led by Jay Schools teachers, community volunteers, and JCPL staff.

How much does KiPS cost? – The majority of KiPS funding comes from the Jay County Public Library and some from Jay Schools, local businesses, organizations, and granting sources. There is no cost this year to the child’s family, though donations are always welcome.

Who can attend KiPS? Any child in the Jay Schools district that is eligible for kindergarten in 2021-2022 can register.

When is KiPS?

Day: EVERY Wednesday (Note change in day of the week!)

Time: 9:00 am to 12 noon

Where: Jay County Public Library, 315 N Ship St., Portland
